Chapter 1 by Rose Winchester

I walked out of the dark cave and into bright sunlight. I was clothed in a red dress that complemented my green eyes, and brown hair. I sighed breathing in the fresh air. Until my lungs were full of smoke. I laughed and turned around. "Raizel! Stop it!" I said to the emerald dragon behind me.

"Awww, Maya, my sister.... You're no fun." He said pouting. I growled at him and ran away laughing to join my sister at the volcano.

"Maya! You're awake!!!" She yelled shaking her wings. She ran up to me and circled me, "You smell weird come bathe!" She said sniffing.

"Oh, Ruxo! You know I can't bathe in lava like you can! I need to go to the springs! Come with me?" I said giggling, Ruxo always knew how to make me laugh. She shook herself spraying lava drops everywhere.

"Hop on." She purred stretching out her wings. I clambered on to her scaly back and she pushed off from the ground. I felt the wind blow through my hair and let out a gleeful whoop, raising my arms in the air....
